

Q Did you meet anyone en route from the station to the house?

A No, I didn't see a soul that I remember; I went directly home.

BY MR. STUDER:

Q Had you ever met Mrs. Mills?

A I never knew there was such a woman at all.

Q Never heard of her?

A Never heard of Mrs. Mills or Mr. Mills; the only Mills I ever heard of was Henry Mills a brother of James Mills and I simply remember hearing of him because he kept bees and at one time he lived in the lodge house of the old Lindenwood place, my grandfather's old home where Sidney Carpender lives now. He lived in the lodge house and I never met him and never saw him close enough to know what he looked like; but I remember seeing when I drove by there, large beehives. This was long before the murder.

Q Were you interested in bees?

A Yes, when I lived in Roselle I kept bees for five or six years.

Q When had you last been in New Brunswick before September 14, 1922?

A As near as I can make out, it was in the latter
